

EARTH DAY 2009

Rethink. React. Restore.

TEACH-IN AND ART SHOW

Wednesday, April 22 – All Day

Multipurpose Room, Williams Center (*unless otherwise noted)

9:00 a.m.

Human Rights and Environmental Justice

- Andrew Cullison, Philosophy
- Lauren Piche and Josh Curry-Bascome, Students for Peace
- Adrienne McCormick, English

10:00 a.m.

International Environmental Solutions

- Ivani Vassoler, Political Science
- Ruth Antosh, Modern Languages and Literatures
- Alexander Caviedes, Political Science

11:00 a.m.

Interdisciplinary Panel on Food and Gardens

- Jeanne Frerichs, Anthropology (ABD, University of Iowa)
- Joni Ciehomski, History
- Alyssa Brooke-Gay and Heidi Frame, Women's Student Union and American Studies Capstone Students

Noon

A Sustainable Taste of SUNY Fredonia

- Introduced by Michael Proffer, FSA, director of Dining Services
- Event includes a light, informal buffet lunch showcasing sustainable campus food options.

Noon

Campus Nature Walks

*(meet outside Jewett Hall entrance)

- William Brown, Biology
- Timothy Strakosh, Biology
- Jonathan Titus, Biology

1:00 p.m.

Coal Mining Issues and Controversies

- Jack Berkley, Geosciences
- Adam Malchoff, president, Environmental Affairs Club

2:00 p.m.

The First Two Rs: Workshop on Reducing Personal Footprints

- Chris W. Burger, chair, N.Y. State Sierra Club Solid Waste Committee and Binghamton Regional Sustainability Coalition

3:00 p.m.

Town Hall Forum on Renewable Energy

- Western New York residents can share their concerns about proposed energy projects with elected officials. Participants will include Susan Mackay, Fredonia village trustee; Lori Cornell (representing Assemblyman William Parment); Sam Teresi, mayor of Jamestown; and other local representatives.

4:00 p.m.

Workshop on Environmental Activism and Civic Engagement

- David Rankin, Political Science
- Raymond Rushboldt, Political Science

5:00 p.m.

Building Sustainable Classrooms

- Scott Foley, Silver Creek Elementary
- Amy Lauer, Fredonia Middle School
- Terry Mosher, SUNY Fredonia

6:00 p.m.

Earth Day Poetry Reading

- Featuring readings by Sigma Tau Delta and Writers' Ring students, English faculty members, and award-winning poets Aimee Nezhukumatathil and James Stevens.

8:00 – 10:00 p.m.

Eco Fashion Show

- Students will model clothing designed to make use of re-used, vintage and environmentally friendly materials.

Light Refreshments Served All Day

www.fredonia.edu/gogreen

STATE UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK AT FREDONIA

OK TO POST ON BULLETIN BOARDS